By accessing the Site, you agree not to use the Site in any way that is prohibited by these Terms of Use, including by using the Site in a way that is illegal or could give rise to civil liability, that could violate the security of ANN websites or otherwise cause injury to ANN or any other party, or that interferes with the operation of the Site. For example, and without limitation, you may not:

- engage in unauthorized spidering, “scraping,” or harvesting of content, or use any other unauthorized automated means to compile content or information;
- take any action that imposes an unreasonable or disproportionately large load on our network or infrastructure;
- use any device, software, or routine to interfere or attempt to interfere with the proper working of the Site or any activity conducted on the Site or attempt to probe, scan, test the vulnerability of, or breach the security of any system or network;
- attempt to decipher, decompile, disassemble, or reverse-engineer any of the software comprising or in any way making up a part of the Site; or

Miscellaneous

The Terms shall be governed by, construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law provisions. You agree that any claim or dispute arising out of or relating to the Site or under the Terms shall be resolved exclusively by an appropriate federal or state court sitting in the State of New York, unless agreed upon by all parties.

The waiver of any provision of the Terms shall not be considered a waiver of any other provision or of Ann Taylor's right to require strict observance of each of the terms herein. If any provision of the Terms deemed to be illegal or unenforceable, the remainder of the Terms shall be unaffected and shall continue to be fully valid, binding, and enforceable. You agree that no joint venture, partnership, employment, or agency relationship exists between you and us as a result of these Terms or your access to and use of the Site.
